Picker was driving south in Vandeventer avenue on his beer wagon, accompanied by the boy. At Fairfax avenue he started to turn out of the street car tracks for an approaching car. The jar caused the child to lose his balance, and before the father could stop the wagon the front wheels of the vehicle had run across the boy's body.

B. Laucks of Little Rock, who is at the Laclede Hotel, "And even those who have visited that country are not aware of the richness which lies about them. It is wonderful. Just to illustrate this, I wish to point out one incident: Several years ago there arrived in Little Rock a man who had hardly enough money to pay board for a week. He opened a store in Little Rock after awhile, and then visited the country about Harrison on a prespecting tour. He was somewhat of a chemist and in passing over a clay bank discovered that it was filled with aluminum, which, at that time, was a most valuable metal. He purchased the land for little or nothing and then sought to interest Eastern investors. He did so, and sold out a thousand-acre tract a few weeks ago for about $100.000. He owns other valuable mineral land in the County of Searcy and in a few years will be a millionaire without doubt. "There are other incidents of like nature, showing just what has been done and what will be done in the future. It's a great country and bound to excel the Klondike in riches some day."

The negro gets to be just as bad as the white person in the matter of insunity. I think, however, they are even more shrewd in covering it up. They are active imitators, and this seems to show up as the insanity develops. Their actions are wilder at times, and the forms of insanity wilder at times, and the forms of insanity more aggravated in some cases than it is in whites. Their antics, as we call it, are variable. I have known a woman inmate in the asylum to be perfectly sane for six months at a time, and suddenly she would break out in all sorts of outlandish performances, which would be continued for months. We have now sixty negroes in the St. Joseph Asylum."
